MOTION ON CONSENT TO EXTEND DEADLINES
NOT THE SUBJECT OF APRIL 18, 2012 SUSPENSION ORDER

The parties, Strike King Lure Company (“Petitioner”) and Wyman Von Mohr & Associates (“Registrant”), hereby move on consent to extend, for a period of two weeks, all deadlines not the subject of the TTAB’s April 18, 2012, Order.

On April 5, 2012, Registrant filed a motion to compel, which is now fully briefed and pending. On April 18, 2012, the TTAB issued an Order suspending proceedings pending the disposition of Registrant’s motion, but stating that the Order “does not toll the time for either party to make any required disclosure, to respond to discovery requests which had been duly served prior to the filing and service of the motion to compel or to appear for a discovery deposition which had been duly noticed prior to the filing and service of the motion to compel.”

The parties are negotiating a settlement, and anticipate that an agreement will be concluded shortly. For this reason, the parties jointly request that the Board extend, for a period of two weeks, all deadlines not suspended by the April 18, 2012, Order so that the parties can devote their time and resources to conclusion of the settlement.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the parties request that the TTAB grant their joint motion to extend for two weeks all deadlines not suspended by the Board's Order dated April 18, 2012.
